

The Hunt

Wolfheart

Blood marks the trail
Red paints the horizon
Hunters moon embraced with howling forlorn
Daybreak revealed the marks
Traces of a wounded leader
Rules the lands from these woods and beyond
Race through the woods
Hasten over the waters
Run upon the frozen lakes
Reach a higher ground
That reveals the realm
Under your might
White kingdom of frost and ice
Ruler of the frozen lands from these woods and beyond
Embrace the hunters moon with howling forlorn
