

Another Minute

Bodyjar

Wait, another minute
I'm not finished yet
I'm not quite ready to walk away, nowSteal another second
I caught you home
If feel so lonley and used but I'm washing the bruises awayWatch you for an hour
It's not over yet
It fades but I won't let it go away now
No is not a reason, it's not a thing to say
Now I just won't it let it go
Obsession is close to breaking meWaiting here for my reply
Even if I don't get it
Waiting here for my reply
I don't know how to die
I'm starting to believe in changes
