

Third World

Dr. Sin

Only the strong survive
So that the rich can thrive
Everyone else is deprivedThe brutal way of the third world is in my face
Makes you wanna defect
From the human raceYou never thought there could be
So much suffering and misery
So many people
Living in utter depravityDemocracy is declined
Keep the masses in line
Just tell them everything is fineThe bitter wine of the third world is in my veins
The bloody past of my homeland is my shame
Can't erase all those images in my mind
As I try to forget what I left behindCrimes! Rapes! Drugs! Shame!
Crimes! Rapes! Drugs! Shame...People still fighting for money...
Religion...
Color of skin...Injustice in the third world will persist Because we will never decide to Refuse and resist, no
Can't speak your mind
You gotta keep your mouth shut, yeah!
Keep your rage inside
Burning in your gutLiving in the third world.
