

Break Your Heart

Derek Ryan

Here beneath the dancing lights
There was never one like you
The fire in your pretty eyes
Sparks each time you move
Yeah I know you've been let down
I see past your disguise
But I won't mess you around
Like those other guys

No I'm never gonna break your heart
Break your heart, break your heart
No, I'm never gonna break your heart
Gonna break your heart in two
Cause I wouldn't know where to start
Know where to start
No, I'm never gonna break your heart
Gonna break your heart in two

Sometimes hearts just don't fit
Together like they should
And love just can't help but split
Apart like firewood
But that was then this is now
Our love is something new
We're stronger than the oak tree bough
There's nothing we can't do

No I'm never gonna break your heart
Break your heart, break your heart
No, I'm never gonna break your heart
Gonna break your heart in two
Cause I wouldn't know where to start
Know where to start
No, I'm never gonna break your heart
Gonna break your heart in two

No I'm never gonna break your heart
Break your heart, break your heart
No, I'm never gonna break your heart
Gonna break your heart in two

Cause I wouldn't know where to start
Know where to start
No, I'm never gonna break your heart
Gonna break your heart in two

I'm never gonna break your heart in two
