More Than Miles

Brantley Gilbert

Maybe I should take take picture off the dashboard
Before memory hits the brakes and takes the wheel
Yeah I bet she's still crying on that front porch
Yeah this time it's going to take some time to heal
Cause I'm on my way to tennessee
Singing georgia on my mind
Chasing what they say's a dream
Thinking maybe it ain't mine
Cause that girl's in every song I sing
She's in every song I write
That six string riding in the seat won't keep me warm tonight
God what am I supposed to do?
There's more than miles in my rearview
Well I'm headed north to what I swore I wanted
I'm trying not to buy into my doubts
But I just can't seem to keep myself from wondering
Why I'm jealous of all them headlights headed south
Cause I'm on my way to tennessee.
Singing georgia on my mind
Chasing what they say's a dream

Thinking maybe it ain't mine
Cause that girl's in every song I sing
She's in every song I write
That six string riding in the seat won't keep me warm tonight
God what am I supposed to do here?
Cause there's still more than miles in my rearview
(Yeah more than miles)
Yeah I've been changing lanes without my mirrors
Cause every time I look behind me I see her
I think I just realized how much I need her (damn)
So I'm turning back for georgia
Stopping short of tennessee
I cant put my dreams before her man I need her here with me
Cause that girl's in every song I sing
She's in every song I write
That six string riding in the seat can sleep in the back tonight
Now I know what I'm supposed to do here
There's still more than miles in my rearview

(more than miles)
