

Right Place, Wrong Time

Otis Rush

Oh I'm always as the right place at the wrong time
Trying to find the one woman I can call mine
Yes, I'm always as the right place at the wrong time
Trying to find the one woman I can call mine
Yes when I start a conversation
They tell me they don't leave good things laying 'round They say there's someone for everybody
Oh but where in the world is the one for me?
Yes they say there's someone for everybody
I wonder where in the world is the one for me?
Another day has gone
My heart remain in misery Well I guess I'll go out into the town
I drowned my sorrow at the nearest neighborhood bar
Oh I think I'll go out and do the town
I drowned my sorrow at the nearest neighborhood bar
I think I'll catch a train and ride
My destiny God knows I'll find
