Baby

The Roots

[Black Thought]

Slow down when you're hitting them corners

Fuck around, spill this 'gnac on my two hundred dollar suit
 (stop being a backseat driver man)(turn him up)

Your ma don't like to jitterbug, said this unholy music
Hip hop just so ridiculous, everything sounds so confusing

Nowadays ain't nothing like it was, one thing that showed the blues
Is this system so mysterious, can't let that stop the movement
Can't get no satisfaction, they all laughing, glad it's happening

All wings hot for the main attraction
Acting a fool with a lust for action
Young girl caught in a crime of passion
Sitting there crying in designer fashion
Didn't blow, didn't have time for asking
Somebody call for the ambulance, girl[Hook]

Baby, baby, baby
Baby let me live, please girl let me slide
Baby, baby, baby

Baby if you let me go, I swear I'll change, just change your mindYour old man don't like to jitterbug, said this old dirty music

Hip hop just so ridiculous, them stories too confusing
Nowadays he ain't loving you like he was
And you ain't there just for using
Could have sworn that was him with another girl
And they wasn't out just for cruising

Can't get no satisfaction

He out late nights, probably smashing

Leaving a trail like Charlie tracks

Or the train on the ground, downtown Manhattan

Everybody seen him run around and you bound to catch him The condoms, you found and asked him, was all this just for practice?

> He didn't realize what he had Now your heart got fractured girl[Hook] Baby, baby, baby Baby, baby, baby
