Dissolve

Drist

Oceans arrived, let go
So sure, how could my confidence be wrong
I sacrifice, and hold the pain
Of each and everyday aloneAll I know, is all I loved
All long forgiven
All I knew, are all my wrongs
I've long forgottenWatch as the tide dissolves
So sure, that the lines I drew
Were all gone
I sacrifice and hold onto
The chance that I will soon dissolveBreak all your ties
Face the one
Held inside.
Take a breath
Keep your head
Held back while
I show you. See them
Watch it go
