Midnight Queen

Inkubus Sukkubus

In the forest, in the night
Underneath the full moonlight
She's always there
Nature's child in the woodland air
Fade into the dream
And when your heart is filled with fear
Close your eyes for she is here
She's always there
The stars shine in her raven hair
Fade into the dreamAnd on a night like this
You'll find her burning kiss
Her hair all wrapped around you
Your dreams are here to drown youAnd in the winter and autumn time
Sind your song, drink your wine
For she is here
The Midnight Queen is dressed in green
Fade into the dream
Does the cold air chill your spine
And to the truth you are blind
For she is here
The naked spirit of the forest glade
Fade into the dream
