Love's A Loaded Gun

Alice Cooper

Somebody saw you at the station
You had your suitcase in your hand
You didn't give no information
You walked off with another man
I'm always standing in the shadows, baby
I watched you give yourself away
And you take them home into your bedroom
Oh you had another busy day
I tried to look the other way and fake it
You push me to the limits I can't take it
One down, one to go just another bullet in the chamber
Sometimes love's a loaded gun
Red lights, stop and go whatcha gonna do when you play with danger
Sometimes love's a loaded gun and it shoots to kill
Someday they'll put me in a squad card
Someday they'll throw away the key
But 'til that day I'll be a mad dog
'Cause that's what you taught me to be
You looked into the eyes of men above you
I was the one who really tried to love you
One down, one to go just another bullet in the chamber
Sometimes love's a loaded gun
Red lights, stop and go whatcha gonna do when you play with danger
Sometimes love's a loaded gun and it shoots to kill
Pull the trigger
I tried to look the other way and fake it
You know, you push me right to the limit I can't take it
One down, one to go just another bullet in the chamber
Sometimes love's a loaded gun
Red lights, stop and go whatcha gonna do when you play with danger
Sometimes love's a loaded gun and it shoots to kill
One down, one to go just another bullet in the chamber
Sometimes love's a loaded gun
Red lights, stop and go whatcha gonna do when you play with danger
Sometimes love's a loaded gun and it shoots to kill
Somebody saw you at the station
