Blast

DJ Deathrat

I slashed and burned through my 15 minutes of fame
And now it's time for me to extinguish the flame
But that's alright cause I wouldn't have it any other wayI had a blast
I had a blastOn an ounce of talent (?) my (?) into the ground
And then I stood and watched as the others wore the crown
But that's alright cause I wouldn't have it any other wayI had a blast
I had a blastI had a blast
I had a blast
I had a blast
