

Outside

Hollywood Undead

(Danny)

Who left me outside
I'm bent I'm not broken
Come live in my life All the words left unspoken
Are the pages I write
On my knees and I'm hoping
That someone holds me tonight Hold me tonight (Verse: Johnny 3 Tears)
Welcome to the world
And all the land in it was wasted
The blood upon your hands
And the wickedness that made it Sing or scream it all
And the memories keep fading
See the exit wound
Dear God what have we taken I guess I'll say a prayer
And I'll kiss into the air
I'll look into the sky
Send them straight to nowhere We all dug the grave
Can't shake away the shame
Can't quiver in the sky
But your shaking all the same You left us with the guns
And all of them unloaded
Teach us how to shoot
But you taught us how to hold them All the weight of all the world
Is right between your shoulders
Heavy is the heart
When the world keeps growing colder (Chorus: Danny)
Who left me outside
I'm on my knees and I'm hoping
That someone holds me tonight
Hold me tonight (Verse: Johnny 3 Tears)
Two sides to every story
Here's a little morning glory
Breakfast off a mirror
Dying slow seems a little boring Burning like a flag
Walking straight into the breeze
Cause there's two types of people
You are weak or you are me Yeah What's another life time

Like mine
We all die a little sometimes
It's alright Did you come to say your goodbyes
To this life
We all hurt a little sometimes
We're alright So mothers hold your children
Don't you ever let them go
There is weakness in your grip
And they are holding all the hope Don't you ever let me go
(Danny)
Don't you ever let me go
(Johnny 3 Tears)
Don't you ever let me go
(Danny)
Don't you ever let me go (Chorus: Danny)
Who left me outside
I'm on my knees and I'm hoping
That someone holds me tonight
Hold me tonight (Verse: Danny)
Who left me outside
I'm bent I'm not broken
Come live in my life All the words left unspoken
Are the pages I write
On my knees and I'm hoping
That someone holds me tonight Hold me tonight
