

Marley Medley

Sublime

Baby I really wanna know.
I think you should stop your cryin'.
Use my kerchief to dry your eyes.
You know I love you.

Ruby here I am,
I'm rubbin' up on my belly
like someone put jelly in there.
Here I am,
I'm rubbin' up on my belly
like someone put jelly in there.

This train is bound for glory,
this train.
Hear me talkin' 'bout
this train is bound for glory,
this train.
This train is bound for glory.
This train don't carry know one holy.

The stone that the builder refuse
shall always be the head corner stone.
The stone that the builder refuse
shall always be the head corner stone.
You're a builder baby.
Here I am a stone.

Don't mean to confuse it girl.
Cause the things you should use are the things we should choose.
And you hear me,
hear what I say.
