Sometimes You're barely touching my fingers
You leave me hanging on for days and I don't know if I can be Your son
I don't know if I can be Your sonSometimes I lie asleep Your shelter
So tightly You embrace my heart and
I don't know if I can bear this loe
I don't know if I can bear this loveYou promised paradise that day
I took Your hand You took my pain away
Whatever I feel You're still the same
The only name above all namesWon't You be my only one
Won't You be my only one
Won't You be my only one
Won't You be my only oneYou turned my scars into medals
You turned my tears into wine
And I don't know if I can drink this cup
I don't know if I can drink this cupBefore the foundation of the world
And way beyond the end to come
You're shining brighter than the sun
You'll always be the only one
