

In Between

Pay The Girl

What do you do
When they're all against you
And your senses tell you
Turn from where you are? And what do you say
When they all forgive you
And you had no faith?
Why believe you? When I lose the truth
I search for the inspiration
All I need from you
Feeds my desperation The world I'm in between
Is enough to make me scream
I don't wanna be alone
Don't wanna be alone now The world I'm in between
There's no one here but me So where do you go
When everything you know
Is criticized?
It wears you out inside And where you gonna be
When they all desert you
And it's too late to change
Only a few? Really ever find the truth
More like isolation
But everything I get from you
Feeds my desperation The world I'm in between
Is enough to make me scream
Don't wanna be alone
Don't wanna be alone now The world I'm in between
There's no one here but me I don't wanna be alone now
There's nothing left to hold now I'm living in the darkness
I don't know if I can take it, yeah The world I'm in between
Is closing in on me The world I'm in between
Is closing in on me
I don't wanna be alone, don't wanna be alone
Don't wanna be, yeah I don't wanna be alone
Don't wanna be alone inside
I don't wanna be alone
There's nothing left to hold, yeah The world I'm in between
Is enough to make me scream
I don't wanna be alone
Don't wanna be alone now The world I'm in between

There's no one here but me
