Fade Away

Godhead

When everything is gone and no one's left to carry on Look through the ashes of what was to be
I wear the badge of the dispossessed and the label that I don't belong
I feel the stab in the dark and all that was mine is taken away
I am, I was everything you see
I am, I was never meant to be
When everything is bare and no one's left to ever care
Look for me at the end of all existence
I wear the brand of the insurrection that took a lifetime of pain to kill
I feel the stab in the dark and all that was mine is taken away
I am, I was everything you see
I am, I was never meant to be
No one burns me like you do, they all just fade away
No one burns me like you do, they all just fade away
We are (I am), we were (I was) everything you see
We are (I am), we were (I was) never meant to be
No one burns me like you do, they all just fade away
No one burns me like you do, they all just fade away
No one burns me like you do, they all just fade away
