

January

Dan Croll

Never really fell in like this before
It must be the moon
Or maybe the month I'm in
Given the state I'm in Never really fell in love like this before
Stealing my thunder
Dragging me under
It must be the month I'm inImagine it if it just caught my eye
Well, it dropped before my own biscuit eye
January, it's coming too soon
And it's been really good to know you
Never really had a home to call my own
Since I've been moving around
This music's got a tremor around
Emptying it down
So if I take it to noon to let it show
Now I'm letting you know
That I'm letting you go
Letting you goImagine it if it just caught my eye
Well, it dropped before my own biscuit eye
January, it's coming too soon
And it's been really good to know you
Really really good to know you
It must be the month I'm in
Dragging me under
It must be the month I'm in
Seeing the thunder
And now I'm letting you know
Now I'm letting you know
Still I'm under
It must be the month I'm inImagine, it just caught my eye
Well, it dropped before my own biscuit eye
January, it's coming too soon
January, too soon
January, it's coming too soon
January, too soon
