

Next Thing You Know

Matthew West

Tell me when? I remember when I was thirteen
I saw a picture on my TV screen
The Reverend Billy Graham
And the people singin', "Just As I Am" And it felt like you were talking to me
And my whole world seemed to fade away
Until I heard my mother say
"Son are you okay? Do you wanna pray?"
And that became the hour I first believed And next thing you know, I'm high and flyin'
Well, next thing you know, my heart is in Your hands
Next thing you know, there's no denyin'
And next thing you know, I'm a brand new man Well, I wish I could say I was saved right there
And I did until my freshman year
The world was pulling me a long way from thirteen
And you were calling but I didn't hear Still I knew there was something more
So one day my knees hit the dorm room floor
I said, "If You're there, and if You really care
Come and talk to me like I was thirteen" And next thing you know, I'm high and flyin'
Well, next thing you know, my heart is in Your hands
Oh, next thing you know, there's no denyin'
Well, next thing you know, I'm a brand new man I got a picture in my head today
Of how Heaven might look someday
I see the people there so I pull up a chair
And their stories they blow me away 'Cause I can see it on every face
The evidence of Grace
And as I listen it occurs to me
Everybody's got their own thirteen So what's your story about His glory
You gotta find your place in the history of Grace
Yeah, what's your story about His glory
Come on and find your place Next thing you know, yeah, I'm high and flyin'
Next thing you know, my heart is in Your hands
Next thing you know, there's no denyin'
Next thing you know, I'm a brand new man Next thing you know, yeah, I'm high and flyin'
Next thing you know, my heart is in Your hands
Oh, next thing you know, there's no denyin'
Well, next thing you know, I'm a brand new man Next thing you know

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>