

Time Machine

Royal Thunder

i'm looking for a time machine
but i cannot go back
and change one single thing
it's staying all in tact and i'm looking for a way to feel cuz' i don't feel a thing and it haunts me in this life when you want me to pretend oh i'm looking for a place to be and a place to lay my head i'm drowning in this life come back for meit squeels it's in the air tonight that devil knows my name
it shreaks across the sky tonight
choosing moderation
i should give it up
but i'm not giving it up your way
it screams it kicks
i feel the weight
it pulls me down
but i'm not giving it up that waystill looking for a way to feel too tired to pretend it haunts me in this life when you want me to confess will i ever find a peace within will these colors fade away i'm wrapped up in these arms i'm burning in your bed don't you ever come and look for me don't you ever say my name i'm standing ten men tall you will not break meit squeels it's in the air tonight

but i'm not giving it up that waythere's no need to push away there's a thorn in your eye it's starting to fade
there's no need to push away
there's a thorn in my side
you want thisi finally found a way to feel
as the colors fade away i break free form your arms and burn you in this bedi'm no stranger to your black streak i see through
your enemy
i oughta know
i wanna know you better than thati'm no stranger to your black streak
i wanna know you better than thati'm looking for a time machine
you'll be waiting all your life don't come back for me
relax
it's gonna fade
just relax
it's gone away
