

Solitude

Candlemass

I'm sitting here alone in darkness
Waiting to be free
Lonely and forlorn I am crying I long for my time to come
Death means just life
Please let me die in solitude Hate is my only friend
Pain is my father
Torment is delight to me Death is my sanctuary
I seek it with pleasure
Please let me die in solitude Receive my sacrifice
My lifeblood is exhausted
No one gave love and understanding Hear these words
Vilifiers and pretenders
Please let me die in solitude, yeah Earth to earth
Ashes to ashes
And dust to dust Earth to earth
Ashes to ashes
And dust to dust Sitting here alone in darkness
Waiting to be free
Lonely and forlorn I am crying I long for my time to come
Death means just life
Please let me die in solitude, yeah Earth to earth
Ashes to ashes
And dust to dust Earth to earth
Ashes to ashes
And dust to dust Earth to earth
Ashes to ashes
And dust to dust Earth to earth
Ashes to ashes
And dust to dust
And please let me die in solitude
