Red Flare

Matt Henry

Some say that love is kind
Some say it just takes time
And I spend too long tryin' be just friends
Instead of making you mine, Oh
Caught up in troubled waters
With nowhere left to hide
I'm searching for the courage, out in this darkened sky

Send me out a red flare
If you're ready to be found
Oooh red flare, tell me are you ready now
I'm sending out a red flare
Hoping that you hear me out
Oooh red flare, tell me are you ready to be found

I'm always holding back
When I should be holding on
Not knowing what could be
When all is said and done
Ooh, I need some inspiration
Deep in this hole of mine
Some kind of intervention
Give me just give me a sign, yeah

Send me out a red flare
If you're ready to be found, yeah
Oooh red flare, tell me are you ready now
I'm sending out a red
Hoping that you hear me out
Ooh red flare, tell me are you ready now
Oooh, Oooh, are you ready now (x3)

Oooh ooh, send me out send me out
Send me out a red flare
If you're ready to be found yeaah,
Oooh red flare won't you tell me are you ready now, yeeah
Send me out a red
Hoping that you hear me out
Oooh red flare
Tell me are you ready now, woooh (fade out)
