Rakehead

White Apple Tree

I've fallen out, fallen out of place
The engine's on, but no one's home
In the corner, of the Earth I wait
The leaves are gone, to the moon they've raised

I'm a rakehead

I've fallen out, fallen out of place
The engine's on, but no one's home
In the corner, of your mind wait
The placebo, has never changed

I'm a rakehead
