Room in Your Heart

Living in a Box

It's dark and cold tonight
I'm walking all alone
And one step at a time
I'm getting closerI know she's hard to find
Instinctively I try
To take the path of love
Into the nightThere would be no reason
If you really didn't care
There would be no reason for loveThe door is open wide is anybody there?
I know this must be the room in your heart
I really don't know why but it's so easy to breathe
I know this must be the room in your heartNo answers question me
No one's been here before
I'm the first to see
The light at your doorIf I could hold you now
I wouldn't disagree
With these four walls
You're protecting meThere would be no reason
If you really didn't care
There would be no reason for loveThe door is open, is anybody there?
I know this must be the room in your heart
I really don't know why but it's so easy to breathe
I know this must be the room in your heartOh yeah, I can feel it, I can feel it
I can feel the love that's surrounding me
Coming out of youThe door is open wide, is anybody there?
I know this must be the room in your heart
I really don't know why but it's so easy to breathe
I know this must be the room in your heartIs anybody there
The door is open wide, is anybody there?
I know this must be the room in your heart
I really don't know why but it's so easy to breathe
I know this must be the room in your heart
