The Things We Owe

Takida

The scars reveal the hidden place deep down in you
Like a shadow from the past and nothing is true
A reflection from a dejected face, it comes to Memories will last, I am crying for you,
I am cryingI'll, I'll give my own time
I'll give my whole life
I'll give my only light
Just to heal youI, I'll give my own time
I'll give my whole life
I'll give my only light
The things that we oweHaven appears with deceitful light (and angst follow soon)
She's not welcome here no more, (you have to walk on through)
Bad dreams haunting the frozen nights, (all I can do)
Longing for a home, (I am crying for you)
Crying for you, I am crying for youI, I'll give my own time
I'll give my whole life
I'll give my only light
Just to heal youI, I'll give my own time
I'll give my whole life
I'll give my only light
The things that we oweThe things that we owe
The things that we oweI, I'll give my own time
I'll give my whole life
I'll give my only light
Just to heal youI, I'll give my own time
My whole life
My only light
The things that we owe
