Dangerous

Group 1 Crew

We on fire.
Danger!
We've been called, don't hang up.
The devil mad...anger.
But we don't talk to him, he a stranger.
So we walk it instead of talk it cause He said so.
Ain't no need for waiting, no debating...
Baby let's go!
Pedal to the floor, gassed up...
Homey petro!
Tell about the blood that they drew when He bled so.
Lived a life so wreck less,
I don't know how I made it through.
Always taking chances and trying everything but You.
So why am I playing it safe when it comes to giving You my life (I don't know)
I can't let fear hold me back from doing what I know is right.
I felt Your spirit show me things that I would never believe could ever happen in the time in my life.
And even though it scares me just to think that You've chosen me, I promise I won't put up a fight no.
I want to live dangerous.
Risk it all for You, Lord.
I need You to wake me up from
the life I've known before.
Whatever it takes, I want You to make,
make me more like You.
There's nothing I won't give up.
I want to live dangerous (oh! woah! oh! oh!)
I want to live dangerous (oh! woah! oh! oh!)
I know You've been waiting for me
to give You all I am.
To be a light in the dark,

Strong enough to take a stand.
I don't want to box You in or keep You hidden anymore...

Cuz You're the only One worth giving my life for.
I want to live dangerous.
Risk it all for You, Lord.
I need You to wake me up from
the life I've known before.
Whatever it takes, I want You to make,
make me more like You.
There's nothing I won't give up.
I want to live dangerous (oh! woah! oh! oh!)
I want to live dangerous (oh! woah! oh! oh!)
I get dangerous
but it don't matter, that ain't a thing to us.
We either live for Him or live for us.
And the fact is we don't really (really) know
when the end will come (end will come).
So until then I'll be a monster.
No more playing games...contra.
Wake me up to a morning glorious to a God I know I trust to bring me through the dangerous.
I want to live dangerous.
Risk it all for You, Lord.
I need You to wake me up from
the life I've known before.
Whatever it takes, I want You to make,
make me more like You.
There's nothing I won't give up.
I want to live dangerous (oh! woah! oh! oh!)
I want to live dangerous (oh! woah! oh! oh!)
I want to live (Group 1 Crew!)
