

When Forever Comes Crashing (Demo)

Converge

For the swarms come and reap your day dreams of love and hope
For the fears and blood stains faith are woven in her yearn for war
And the sadder song of broken wings hard through the battered pavement among this city Deafening, it betrays me in the sweetest of dreams
These moments can't avoid you Tonight the lonesome sky opens wide Forgive me
2 AM - My city lights burn bright as day catching the flattering silhouettes of the tired and the damned Here i am tapped clean out of respect and walking waist deep in ruin
If this is need then i never wanted you
Your love was paralysing
This is a monument to our everything before our forever comes crashing I loved you
