

Pillars Of Serpents

Trivium

"I'm alive!"

"I'm alive!"

Final words of a god left drowning

Burned alive

Burned alive

Scorch the angels out from the skies

(Chorus)

Building up the walls to surround us in

From a world built on sin

Building up the strength for the release

From a world corrupted

To be unseen

With the eyes

For it's the ground that we lie on

Open wide

Open mind

Nail your mouths shut it's this world

(Chorus)

Wasting lives away

Consume to filling

Only waking

For the feeding

Give me spark to light the world

Up in flames reignite

A changing to better times

End this now

Pillars

Serpents

Make it over

Give me spark to light the world

Up in flames reignite

A changing to better times

End this now

So no more are these dreams of angels

Washed away with the tears
