Diana Vickers

I'm still dancing
Now we're burning
The heat was rising
And now we're breathing more and more Can you see me now?
Can you hear me shout?
When I'm dancing through the fear
Will you catch my fall?
Do you know me at all?
It's like you never notice me
It's like you never notice me I'm still trying
I'm not tired just yet
My eyes are drying
I never dreamed that you'd forget Can you see me now?
Can you hear me shout?
When I'm dancing through the fear
Will you catch my fall?
Do you know me at all?
It's like you never notice me
It's like you never notice me In my room
There is doubt
The only words cant come out?
We were friends, we had heat
And I choke when you speak because you never notice me because you never notice me Can you see me now?
Can you hear me shout?
When I'm dancing through the fear
Will you catch my fall?
Do you know me at all?
It's like you never notice me
It's like you never notice me Notice me
