Gunpowder Valentine

ELLEGARDEN

i was what i thought, that's what i thought i was nothing's very new, but who cares about that now mankind, tower lift, not giving up the faith my head is so unplugged, i just don't get thisjust don't bring me down we have to get through we are not trying to get it right we are just dying to hold it tight just can't give you up
nothing i can give in now what a good dayash, dust, beautiful face, tied up both of my hands breaker falls too soon but kind of boring nowmars falls, devastate and over-cooked bacon my head is so confused, i just don't get thisjust don't bring me down
we have to get through
nothing i can give in now what a good daynow i want to be out here stupid, wise, proud, ashamed well you know how much it will cost you getting backunnecessarily jumping around like a frog if something's going wrong it's none of your concern the water is about to blow unsocial smiley face there's nothing i can do, i just don't get thisjust don't bring me down
we have to get through
what a good day
