

Joyful Noise

John Reuben

I told a lie to the liar inside
Who was telling lies to me
Everything is gonna be alright
Until it's something I believe, I believe
Make a joyful noise
Clapping on broken hands
Feeling overwhelmed
Standing outside myself
Oh, my low expectation
Don't take advice from a miserable man
Wounds from a friend or an enemy's kisses
Tough love likes to shoot from the hip
Make a joyful noise
Clapping on broken hands
Feeling overwhelmed
Standing outside myself
I'll be right here
Going nowhere, waiting patiently
Faith is a gift
Clarity is terrifying
I'll be right here
Going nowhere, waiting patiently
Faith is a gift
Clarity is terrifying
Make a joyful noise
Clapping on broken hands
Feeling overwhelmed
Standing outside myself
Make a joyful noise
Clapping on broken hands
Feeling overwhelmed
Standing outside myself
