

Rastaman

Nightwork

Them kill Limumba for his own-a-rights
But them can't kill the Rasta Man at all, 'tall, 'tall
    Them can't kill the Rasta Man at all
    That's the strangest man I've seen
    (That's because he's a Rasta Man)
        Having the mark of a Nazarine
        (That's because he's a Rasta Man)
        He carries a prophetical message
        (That's because he's a Rasta Man)
        Borning out of time and out of age
    (That's because he's a Rasta Man)The Rasta come from Zion
        Rasta Man a Lion
        (Oh what a Rasta Man) (repeat)
        Remember Jeremiah children
        (He was a Rasta Man)
            Or even Iziah
            (He was a Rasta Man)
            Moses in the pit of mud
            (He was a Rasta Man)
Trodding from Buzrak with his garments dipped in blood
(He was a Rasta Man)Oh what a dread, dread whola one
    The Rasta Man come from Zion
    What a strange, what a dread, but a righteous man
    The Rasta Man, him come from Zion
        What a dread, dread up-full one
        The Rasta Man come from Zion
        What a dread-black, dread-lock one
    The Rasta Man come from ZionLightening
Seven years years of famine for seven years of plenty
Is like two grains of wheat for one bale of barley
    A hand-full of corn shall be on the hillside
    And with that you've got to be satisfied
It was Elijah who prayed that it did not rain
    (He was a Rasta Man)
    He prayed and the rains came again
    (He was a Rasta Man)
It was Joshua who commanded the sun stand still
    (He was a Rasta Man)
He did that according to his Master's will

(Who was a Rasta Man)What a dread, dread whola one
The Rasta Man come from Zion
What a strange, what a dread, but a up-full one
The Rasta Man come from Zion
What a black, dread up-full one
The Rasta Man come from Zion
What a strange, dread-lock one
The Rasta Man come from Zion
What a dread, what a dread, what a whola one
The Rasta Man come from Zion
What a dread, dread lightening one
The Rasta Man come from Zion
What a strange dread, dread earthquake one
The Rasta Man come from Zion
