Atlanta & Birmingham

Deana Carter

I'm in a hotel room in California
Givin' it my best to give you up
I'm leavin' on a jet plane to New Orleans
You and me, we didn't see it comin'
But somewhere between Atlanta and Birmingham
We fell in love, with just one touch it was out of our hands
I'm holdin' on to every word you said
Somewhere between Atlanta and Birmingham
I gotta pick up the pieces of my lonely heart
I want you to know it's not your fault
You got to go to love, it's waitin'
I hope that your green eyes say what you aren't sayin'
'Cause somewhere between Atlanta and Birmingham
We fell in love, with just one touch it was out of our hands
I never thought that my whole world could end
Somewhere between Atlanta and Birmingham
Somewhere between Atlanta and Birmingham
We fell in love, with just one touch it was out of our hands
I never thought that my whole world would end
Somewhere between Atlanta and Birmingham
I'm in a hotel room in California
Givin' it my best to give you up
