

Let You Down

Eyeshine

Have you seen the way
Smile hesitates
Favorite clothes are frayedSo tell me what's going on
Has it cost your glow
I just gotta knowI'm so sorry that
That I let you down
I just hope that I
Haven't lost you nowI'm so sorry that
That I let you down
I just hope that I
Haven't lost you now
We will rememberThere's nothing left to say
The walls won't chip away
Blank eyes lie in waitSo tell me what's going on
Has it cost your glow
I just gotta knowI'm so sorry that
That I let you down
I just hope that I
Haven't lost you nowI'm so sorry that
That I let you down
I just hope that I
Haven't lost you now
We will remember
What you did for meI'm so sorry that
That I let you down
I just hope that I
Haven't lost you nowI'm so sorry that
That I let you down
I just hope that I
Haven't lost you nowI'm so sorry that
That I let you down
I just hope that I
Haven't lost you now
We will remember
What you did for me
