Nothing Out of Me

Lennon

If I fucked you once, would that keep you in your place?
And I don't give up my freedom to run away
Can you stand too far not to be
The warmest feeling inside of meIf I had a voice, I'd speak
If I knew the truth, I'd leave
Can you be the lies I need
To make nothing out of me
And there's a voice to speak
And there is truth to believe
And you'll be the lies I need
To make nothing out of meCan I have a moment
The reason to live
And a day that doesn't end with deceit
Could you be the savior to help me rise
Instead of bringing me down to your feetIf I had a voice, I'd speak
If I knew the truth, I'd leave
Can you be the lies I need
To make nothing out of me
And there's a voice to speak
And there is truth to believe
And you'll be the lies I need
To make nothing out of meThat wall falls down
And I was spinning from top to ground
And appease my peace
And find it when I wasn't down
That wall falls down
From top to the ground
And appease my peace and discover meIs there a question I didn't ask?
An answer you didn't give?
Could that be all I have left?
My reason to live
This was the year to make my lies
And you left first
When I fell from their eyesIf I had a voice, I'd speak
If I knew the truth, I'd leave
Can you be the lies I need
To make nothing out of me
And there's a voice to speak
And there is truth to believe

And you'll be the lies I need
To make nothing out of meNothing out of me
