Follow the Sun Down

Dark New Day

I know tomorrow is a maybe
Doesn't seem so guaranteed
It seems for once we're finally happy
And blessed with everything we needSo take the highway west again
(Follow the sun down)
Try to hold on while we can
(Follow the sun down)It could be better in the end
(Follow the sun down)
We're saving every second of today
Let's follow the sun downChances come and chances leave you
Stranded on the beaten path
I'm not looking for what's too good to be true
And I'd sure love to see you laughSo take the highway west again
(Follow the sun down)
And try to hold on while we can
(Follow the sun down)It could be better in the end
(Follow the sun down)
Saving every second of todayYou can't stop running
No, you can't stop running
No, you can't stop running now
Can't stopYou can't stop running
No, you can't stop running
No, you can't stop running nowYou can't stop running
No, you can't stop running
No, you can't stop running nowYou can't stop running
No, you can't stop running
No, you can't stop running nowTake the highway west again
(Follow the sun down)
And try to hold on while we can
(Follow the sun down)It's gonna get better in the end
(Follow the sun down)
We're saving every second of today
Follow the sun down, follow the sun down
