

Rising

Lhasa de Sela

Lyrics to Rising:

I got caught in a storm

And carried away

I got turned, turned around I got caught in a storm

That's what happened to me

So I didn't call

And you didn't see me for a while I was rising up

Hitting the ground

And breaking and breaking

I was caught in a storm

Things were flying around

And doors were slamming

And windows were breaking

And I couldn't hear what you were saying

I couldn't hear what you were saying

I couldn't hear what you were saying

I was rising up

Hitting the ground

And breaking and breaking Rising up

Rising up
