

Once Before

Lewis Watson

If you want, I could say your name.
Hold our breath, so well feel again.
I dont know if I could sacrifice; the weeks that I spent,
Holding on by a single thread. But Ive been spending all sleepless nights,
On the floor.
And now I dont even close my eyes,
Anymore.
And I dont want it to happen twice;
Cause weve been here once before. It was you, said it all went wrong.
Well we were just fine yesterday,
Now today youre gone.
But now in a second glance,
You only need a second chance,
But I cant.
Im afraid that Im not that strong. But Ive been spending all sleepless nights,
On the floor.
And now I dont even close my eyes,
Anymore.
And I dont want it to happen twice;
Cause weve been here once before. But Ive been spending all sleepless nights,
On the floor.
And now I dont even close my eyes,
Anymore.
And I dont want it to happen twice:
Cause weve been here once before.
