

Old Train

John Denver

This song was first released on the all aboard! album. it is the only album it has been released on. Old train, I can hear your whistle blow

And I want to be jumping on again

Old train, I've been everywhere you go

And I know what lies beyond each bend Old train, each time you pass

You're older than the last

And it seems I'm too old for running

I hear your rusty wheels grate against the rails

They cry with every mile

And I think I'll stay awhile Old train, I grow weary at the miles

And I miss the freedom that was mine

Old train, just to think about those times

I'll smile when you're highballing by Old train, each time you pass

You're older than the last

And it seems I'm too old for running

I hear your rusty wheels grate against the rails

They cry with every mile

And I think I'll stay awhile Words and music by herb pedersen and mikki pedersen
