One More Day

Socialburn

A warm sunshine on my face
I hear the crashing of the waves
I really came here to hide
To try and escape the pain inside'Cause our tears roll down
We had our tears roll downI swear I've made up my mind
I'll take you back just one more time
Oh no, you've hurt me again
You said that you would change again my friendBut the tears roll down
We had our tears roll downI swore I'd never come to this
One more day I could have missed
The warm sunshine on my face
Can you hear the crashing of the waves'Cause our tears roll down
We had our tears roll down'Cause our tears roll down
We had our tears roll down
'Cause our tears roll down
