

Claire Danes Poster

Size 14

i've got, a new friend she's hanging on my wall she's not like the others she's the fairest of them all when the world it brings me down and life don't go my way i'm thinking i should end it all but i got a new solution

i got a new solution

i'm gonna pick up some beer,
and stay at home and stare at my clare danes poster sometimes, my stomach hurts early in the day but one look, in her direction and the pain just goes away when i toss and turn at night and i can't go to sleep there's too much shit swimming in m head

stay at home
stare at my clare danes poster
she looks so bitchin'
she always listens
she never tells me a loser im a loser

she is so beautiful and she always understands that every once in while i pretend she's my hand

she always listens
she never tells me a loser, loser

pick up some beer
she always listens
loser, loser
loser, loser
