Black Magic

Deluka

Oh oh oh oh oh oh
It's raining in the dark and the full moon spirits are giving you an afterglow.
I'm not weakened by your tainted heart and I don't hear a sound from the street below.
I don't believe you, see right through your poison poetry.
I don't believe you, I don't need your company.
Don't give me that jet black magic Making you look so tragic.
Don't give me that nasty habit,
like some ugly truth.
You get away
you get away with murder
but now I'm on to you.
Oh
Oh oh oh oh oh oh
You're giving me the voodoo, pulling me into you.
Something that you need to know,
I'll never be the one to fall
'cause I don't feel dizzy for your mind control
I don't believe you, see right through your poison poetry.
I don't believe you, I don't need your company.
Don't give me that jet black magic Making you look so tragic.
Don't give me that nasty habit,
like some ugly truth.
You get away
you get away with murder
but now I'm on to you.
Oh
Oh
Shake it, shake it Shake you up
Take it, take it
What I got Shake it, shake it Shake you up
You can move on.

Shake it, shake it Shake you up
Take it, take it
What I got Shake it, shake it Shake you up
You can move on.
Don't give me that jet black magic Making you look so tragic.
Don't give me that nasty habit,
like some ugly truth.
You get away
you get away with murder
but now I'm on to you.
Don't give me that jet black magic Making you look so tragic.
Don't give me that nasty habit,
like some ugly truth.
You get away
you get away with murder
but now I'm on to you.
Oh
