As Syllable from Sound

KEIKO

Dead air calls your name
Through hollow walls
Broken mirrors mask
Your phantom waltz

Iâ€™ll slowly close my eyes
Lament that lies within us dear
As Syllable from Sound
Is silence kindling our fears

You were at my seams
Just holding me together
Stitches pulled
We have worn into this form

Iâ€™ll slowly close my eyes
Lament that lies within us dear
As Syllable from Sound
Is silence kindling our fears

You had the darkness in you dear
Its clear that we were only here to die
Yes you and I

Iâ€™ll slowly close my eyes
Lament that lies within us dear
As Syllable from Sound
Is silence kindling our fears

I cannot exhale
