Start Over

The Afters

The impossible is possible
But your fear is so responsible for keeping you down, keeping you down.
Your unreachable is reachable
But you'll never grab
The wonderful
with your feet on the ground, your feet on the ground

If you fall on your face
Don't just leave it to fate
No such thing as too late
It's not too late

[Chorus]
To start over, start over, start over
Start over, start over, start over
You never have what you want to lose
So pick it up, up, up
Dust off your shoes
Start over, start over, start over
Start over, start over, start over
You've gotta find, find, find the other side,
So give it one, one, one more try.
Start over

You only fail
If you never try
You'll never live
Tryin' not to die.
I'm telling you now, I'm telling you now.
Don't ever stop,
Give all you've got
Don't hesitate, to take a shot
It all comes around, it all comes around.

If you fall on your face
Don't just leave it to fate
No such thing as too late
It's not too late

[Chorus]

There's so much, so much left to gain
There's so much, so much to lose
You'll never know until know until you make a move.

If you fall on your face
Don't just leave it to fate
No such thing as too late
It's not too late

[Chorus]

Start over, start over, start over
Start over
