A-Ok

Neal McCoy

Oh its alright
Everybody is gotta get some lose some time
If you are up tight ..
Its alright x2Its ok
Save the trouble for another day
Put a big old smile back on your face Looks to me like its gonna be a-ok x3let me raise a toast for all of those who are feeling just like me keep your head out the covers there is a hell lot of others who are tired to lose and sleep
.. worries that hold you down Cause its good for the soulOh its alright
Everybody is gotta get some lose some time
If you are up tight ..
Its alright x2Its ok
Save the trouble for another day
Put a big old smile back on your face
Looks to me like its gonna be a-ok x3so go on take up like a rocket through the sky if it feels good thats good you dont need another reason why you can lay there like a book on the shelve wise man saychorus
Oh its alright
Everybody is gotta get some lose some time
If you are up tight ..
Its alright x2Its ok
Save the trouble for another day
Put a big old smile back on your face
a-ok x3
