Trust Fall

Sonnymoon

It's only a trust fallThings have been a little inside out apologies
Babe, I'm gonna ride out the tide, take it in stride
Where would I run to
Even if I was in disguise, it'll follow me
It's funny how the little things stick, make you seasick
Sweep you off your feet
Sweep me off my feetIt's only a trust fall
Into the arms of all
Love is a blessed curse
Let's you sail across the known universeI like it when you look at me like I'm an alien
Lure me with a lock of your hair
Taking that dare is a fire under my feet
Now I see I gotta let go if I wanna know (if I wanna know)
Gotta let it steal my face
Now I embrace
So what's in front of me
Right in front of meIt's only a trust fall
Into the arms of all
Love is a blessed curse
Lets you sail across the known universe
Everyone's in on it
And only a fool would quit
Love is the last and first
Lets you sail across the known universe
Love is the last and first
Lets you sail across the known universe
It's only a trust fallIt's only a trust fall
Into the arms of all
Love is a blessed curse
Lets you sail across the known universe
Everyone's in on it
And only a fool would quit
Love is the last and first
Lets you sail across the known universe
Love is the last and first
Lets you sail across the known universe
It's only a trust fallThe palms of your feet
The whites of your eyes
The marrow in the tree

The sap in your bones
Same as the pistol, heavy in hand
Same as the storms, spinning on Io
Not a divide
That's an illusion, a collective dream
You startle and wake
Salute the abyss
Smile and surrender
Into a glimpse
The rapturous nothing
Into the arms of your captor
Into the arms of the all
Into the arms of the all
Into the arms of the all
