Lately

The Helio Sequence

Lately I don?t think of you at all
Or wonder what you?re up to
Or how you?re getting on
I never think of calling you
Or how things could have been
Or wonder where you sleep at night
Or whose arms you wake in
I?m living alone, living alone
I don?t need you anymore
I?m living alone, living alone
I don?t need you anymore
Lately
I don?t get lost in daydreams
I never lay awake at night
Staring in my bed
And I don?t think about your face
Or anything you?ve said
And I don?t think twice
When someone says your name
Or twist my mind in circles
Wondering which of us to blame
I?m living alone, living alone
I don?t need you, anymore
Living alone, living alone
I don?t need you anymore
I never walk alone and think
Of all the empty words
Or wonder when the day will break
Or when the time will turn
And I don?t break down
When someone says your name
Or twist my mind in circles
Wondering which of us to blame
I?m living alone, living alone
I don?t need you anymore
Living alone living alone
I don?t need you anymore
Lately I don?t think of you at all
Lately

Oh, lately
