

Elouise (SixToes Remix)

Maps

You can read my mind, meet you there sometime
Wasted but so fine, just focus on the sky
Thoughts are going blind, love ain't suicide The things you always knew
Become so clear to you
Elouise, complete the signs
Never realized that this one here's for you
Elouise, don't change your mind So you can read my mind
But it takes you time to lead them from the lies
'Cause hypocrites can't look me in the eyes They won't make you change your mind
Some people they are born and they are kind
Cursed upon the starting line
Some people they are born and they are kind
Elouise, don't change your mind
