

Starlit Hour

Ella Fitzgerald

Love here in the starlit hour
Oh, heaven is in your eyes
While the wind is sobbing
Underneath the stars
Both our hearts are throbbing
Like two guitars Love here in the starlit hour
Night whispering lullabies
Let me dream forever
Underneath the silvery skies Will it be just as sweet again
The glamor, the glory that we know?
Will I find when we meet again
The glamor, the glory ãfÂç??s still aglow? But tonight let us forget tomorrow
Here under the midnight blue
Love will bloom and flower
In the starlit hour with you
