

Box of Blue

Oketo

Remember your name, the father that gave, the mother that slaved
All for you
If that's not the case, don't you lose faith, were an imperfect race
No need to remind you
You're a timeless time in a foreign fix, you're feeling brave again
Under a different skin How they raised You, don't let it phase you
Puzzles Piece to fall apart
We are the future, our fate will find us
Don't forget it
Comfort cure, you are your only FEAR With Bodies ground in the grave
Remember what you have before its too late
Money mouth keep it clipped
Educate to forget it
Follow footsteps fleeing a path already paved
Ego tripping sunny sanctuary of my day
I'm so slow-you are fast
You're short term, I will last
We're comfortable in a Box of BLUE Your left-my right-meet me in the middle of the night
Shoeshine-blue eyes, repetition rules you, do you feel surprised?
Comfort Cure- Narrow Clear-Stuck in it for years
Give it up-Get so Close-One hole will fit us both
In a Box- like it here- you are your only fear
