

Didn't You Know It?

Bel Canto

Hey sibling souls, are you out there?
Children of the earth, where are we going from here?
Cause it hurts the young to live in the open
With so much love to give but too little to spare Yeah, yeah, yeah
The moves we make, the moves we make
We stumble and we hesitate
Yeah, yeah, yeah
The moves we make, the moves we make She said I was not to worry
Hadnt seen her since but was totally convinced
Till I heard them say, "Didnt you know it?
Mary, poor child, was alone when she died" Yeah, yeah, yeah
The moves we make, the moves we make
The promises we disengage
Yeah, yeah, yeah
The moves we make, the moves we make Time for the unfree
Time to rejuvenate the elderly
Time for the unfree
Time to lend a hand Time to lend a hand, lend a hand, lend a hand
Lend a hand, lend a hand, lend a hand
Time to make a stand, make a stand, make a stand
Make a stand, make a stand, make a stand Time to lend a hand, lend a hand, lend a hand
Lend a hand, lend a hand, lend a hand
Time to make a stand, make a stand, make a stand
Make a stand So many things I dont want to know
Told a friend one day but he says Im okay
Cause were born within the X generation
Virtually real with a planet to heal Yeah, yeah, yeah
The moves we make, the moves we make
We fumble and we hesitate
Yeah, yeah, yeah
The moves we make, the moves we make Time for the unseen
Time to eliminate tomorrows fears
Time for the unseen
Time to make a stand Do you follow me? No
Do you follow me? No
Do you follow me?
Well, its time to move on
And to set our wills free Fantasy, its here in me, hey Time for the unfree
Time to rejuvenate the elderly

Time for the unfree
Time to lend a handTime for the unseen
Time to eliminate tomorrows fears
Time for the unseen
Time to make a standDo you follow me? No
Do you follow me? No
Do you follow me?
